

Tree Species Fact Sheet

Wilga

Geijera parviflora

This small evergreen tree displays a rounded to oval crown, whilst fine textured foliage lends a graceful air to the tree. Flowers are small, white to cream in colour and appear in late spring through summer. The tree performs well in a variety of soil types and is highly wind and drought tolerant.

Height: 6-8 metres

Crown Spread: 6 metres

Type: Wide spreading native tree

Origin: Australia

Evergreen/Deciduous: Evergreen

-  Flowers: White and cream
-  Bark: Dark grey to brown
-  Fruit pod: Non seeding species
-  Foliage: Dull to glossy green
-  Autumn foliage: Dull to glossy green

